

DEPENDER

Meaning: DEPENDER (noun): A person who relies on others for support and security, often at the expense of their own independence.

1. A depender often finds security in the support of others.
2. In relationships, being a depender can sometimes lead to a lack of independence.
3. The depender relies heavily on their partner for emotional stability.
4. Being a depender can create challenges in personal growth and self-sufficiency.
5. Many people see the depender role as one that requires careful balance and communication.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/depender>