

DEPLANT

Meaning: Deplant: to remove a plant or tree from the ground or its pot, often to relocate or replace it.

1. The gardener decided to deplanta few of the overgrown shrubs to make room for new flowers.
2. After the storm, they had to deplanta few trees that were uprooted in the wind.
3. To improve the landscape design, she chose to deplanta the old hedges and replace them with fresh ones.
4. The city workers will deplanta the old lampposts to install the new energy-efficient models.
5. In order to create a more open space, they planned to deplanta several of the smaller trees in the park.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deplant>