

DEPLICATION

Meaning: Deprecation refers to the expression of disapproval or the reduction in importance of something, often leading to its replacement or discontinuation.

1. The deprecation of outdated technologies often leads to significant improvements in efficiency.
2. In the meeting, the team's deprecation of the old software revealed a strong desire for innovation.
3. His deprecation of the previous policies was met with mixed reactions from the staff.
4. The deprecation of certain features in the app prompted users to voice their concerns.
5. During the lecture, she discussed the deprecation of traditional teaching methods in favor of more interactive approaches.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deplication>