

DEPLOITATION

Meaning: Depolitization refers to the process of removing political influence or considerations from a situation or project to promote neutrality and collaboration.

1. The team focused on the depolitization of the project to foster collaboration among all stakeholders.
2. Critics argue that the depolitization of the issue has led to a lack of accountability among leaders.
3. The initiative aimed at the depolitization of environmental policies to ensure they are based on scientific evidence rather than political agendas.
4. In order to achieve lasting peace, there must be a depolitization of the conflict, allowing for dialogue and understanding.
5. The artist's work often explores themes of depolitization, questioning the intersection of art and politics in contemporary society.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deploitation>