

DEPLORATION

Meaning: Deporation refers to the expression of strong disapproval or lamentation regarding a particular issue or situation.

1. Her deporation of the city's declining infrastructure was evident in her passionate speech.
2. The artist's deporation of societal issues resonated deeply with the audience.
3. In his essay, he expressed a profound deporation of the environmental destruction caused by industrialization.
4. The committee's deporation of the lack of support for local businesses sparked a heated debate.
5. She wrote a heartfelt letter of deporation to the editor, urging the community to take action.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deploration>