

DEPLORE

Meaning: To express strong disapproval or condemnation of something.

1. Many people deplore the rise of misinformation in the digital age.
2. She expressed her desire to deplore the injustices faced by marginalized communities.
3. The committee decided to deplore the actions of the company that harmed the environment.
4. He took to social media to deplore the lack of support for mental health initiatives.
5. In her speech, she would not shy away from deploring the government's failure to act.
6. Many people deplore the rise of misinformation in social media.
7. She expressed her feelings of sorrow as she deplored the loss of cultural heritage.
8. The committee voted to deplore the recent actions taken by the government.
9. He took to social media to deplore the environmental damage caused by the project.
10. In her speech, she did not hesitate to deplore the injustices faced by marginalized communities.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deplore>