

DEPLOREDNESS

Meaning: DEPLOREDNESS (noun): the state of being deeply mourned or lamented, often reflecting a sense of sorrow or regret over a troubling situation.

1. The deploredness of the situation was evident in the community's somber reactions.
2. Her face reflected the deploredness that filled the room after the announcement.
3. Despite the deploredness of their circumstances, they remained hopeful for the future.
4. The artist captured the essence of human deploredness in her powerful paintings.
5. He spoke about the deploredness surrounding the environmental crisis with passion and urgency.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deploredness>