

DEPLORER

Meaning: Deplorer (noun): a person who expresses strong disapproval or lamentation regarding a particular issue or condition.

1. The deplorer of violence often advocates for peaceful resolutions in conflicts.
2. As a devoted environmentalist, she is a constant deplorer of pollution and waste.
3. His role as a public figure made him a prominent deplorer of social injustice.
4. In her speeches, she is known to be a passionate deplorer of inequality in education.
5. The artist's latest work serves as a visual lament from a deplorer of lost traditions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deplorer>