

DEPONENT

Meaning: A deponent is a person who gives testimony under oath, typically in a legal setting, such as during a deposition.

1. The lawyer presented the deponent's testimony as a crucial piece of evidence in the case.
2. During the deposition, the deponent provided detailed accounts of the events leading up to the incident.
3. The judge instructed the deponent to answer questions truthfully and to the best of their knowledge.
4. In legal proceedings, a deponent is often required to swear an oath before giving their statement.
5. The credibility of the deponent's statements was challenged by the opposing counsel during the trial.
6. In Latin grammar, a deponent verb is one that is passive in form but active in meaning.
7. The deponent testified in court, providing crucial evidence for the defense.
8. Students often struggle to grasp the concept of deponents in classical languages.
9. In the study of ancient texts, recognizing deponents can reveal deeper nuances in the narrative.
10. The linguist explained how the deponent structure differs from regular active and passive verbs.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deponent>