

DEPOPULATING

Meaning: Depopulating refers to the process of reducing the population of a particular area, often due to conflict, environmental factors, or other adverse conditions.

1. The ongoing conflict in the region has been depopulating entire towns, leaving them eerily silent.
2. Efforts to combat climate change are crucial to prevent depopulating rural areas that are becoming uninhabitable.
3. The disease is rapidly depopulating the local wildlife, posing a threat to the entire ecosystem.
4. Government policies aimed at economic development are inadvertently depopulating some small communities.
5. As industries move away, many cities face the challenge of depopulating workforces and dwindling populations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/depopulating>