

DEPOPULATION

Meaning: Depopulation refers to the reduction in the number of people living in a particular area, often resulting in economic and social challenges.

1. Depopulation can lead to significant economic challenges for affected regions.
2. The government implemented various policies to address the issue of depopulation in rural areas.
3. Scientists are studying the long-term effects of climate change on global depopulation trends.
4. The novel explores themes of isolation and survival in a world facing widespread depopulation.
5. Efforts to combat depopulation often focus on improving job opportunities and community services.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/depopulation>