

DEPORTATION

Meaning: Deportation is the act of removing a person from a country, typically a non-citizen, and sending them back to their country of origin.

1. The threat of deportation loomed over many undocumented immigrants in the city.
2. After a lengthy legal battle, she was relieved to avoid deportation and remain with her family.
3. Public opinion on deportation policies has been sharply divided in recent years.
4. The government's new immigration law included stricter measures for deportation of illegal residents.
5. His heart sank when he received the notice of deportation from the immigration office.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deportation>