

DEPOSE

Meaning: Depose: to remove from a position of power or authority, especially in a formal or forceful manner.

1. The king was deposed after a long and bitter struggle for power.
2. Witnesses were called to testify in the trial to depose the corrupt official.
3. In a surprising turn of events, the committee voted to depose the chairman.
4. Revolutionaries sought to depose the existing regime and establish a new government.
5. The evidence presented was strong enough to support the demand to depose the president.
6. The evidence presented in court may depose the credibility of the witness.
7. After years of dissent, the council decided to depose the mayor from office.
8. He was determined to depose the tyrant and restore democracy to the land.
9. The sudden political upheaval led to a movement to depose the ruling party.
10. In a shocking turn of events, the general was deposed by his own troops.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/depose>