

DEPOSITION

Meaning: Deposition is the process of giving sworn testimony or the accumulation of material, such as sediment, in a specific location.

1. The deposition of the witness provided crucial evidence for the trial.
2. Scientists studied the deposition of sediment in the river to understand its historical changes.
3. During the deposition process, the lawyer meticulously recorded every detail of the testimony.
4. The artist captured the beauty of the landscape through the deposition of vibrant colors on the canvas.
5. In geology, deposition refers to the accumulation of sediments in a particular area over time.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deposition>