

DEPRAVATION

Meaning: Depravation refers to the state of being deprived of essential elements or the moral corruption and decline of societal values.

1. Depravation of essential nutrients can lead to serious health issues.
2. The artist's work often reflects themes of moral depravation and societal decay.
3. Living in a state of emotional depravation can significantly impact one's mental well-being.
4. The novel explores the depravation faced by the characters during times of war.
5. She spoke passionately about the depravation experienced by marginalized communities.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/depravation>