

DEPRAVEDLY

Meaning: Depravedly: in a morally corrupt or wicked manner, often with a sense of enjoyment or beauty derived from immorality or suffering.

1. He laughed depravedly at the suffering of others, finding joy in their misfortunes.
2. The artist's latest work was depravedly beautiful, capturing the darkness of human nature.
3. She spoke depravedly of her plans to manipulate and deceive those who trusted her.
4. In the shadows, he plotted depravedly, driven by a desire for power at any cost.
5. The novel explored depravedly twisted themes that challenged societal norms and morals.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/depravedly>