

DEPRAVINGLY

Meaning: DEPRAVINGLY: in a manner that corrupts or morally degrades.

1. The novel explored the depravingly seductive nature of power and its impact on morality.
2. His depravingly cynical view of the world made it difficult for him to trust anyone.
3. The film was criticized for its depravingly graphic content that some felt crossed the line.
4. She argued that the depravingly indulgent lifestyle of the rich often leads to moral decay.
5. The artist's work was both beautiful and depravingly unsettling, challenging viewers to confront their own perceptions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/depravingly>