

DEPRECATATION

Meaning: Deprecation refers to the expression of disapproval or criticism regarding someone or something.

1. The software engineer expressed his deprecation of the outdated coding practices that the team had been using.
2. Her constant deprecation of his achievements made him question her support for him.
3. The deprecation of certain features in the application prompted users to seek alternatives.
4. In the meeting, the manager's deprecation of the proposal left many team members feeling demoralized.
5. Public deprecation of unethical practices is essential in fostering a culture of accountability.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deprecation>