

DEPRECATOR

Meaning: A deprecator is a person who expresses disapproval or belittles others' ideas or contributions, often without providing constructive criticism.

1. The deprecator in the meeting consistently dismissed innovative ideas without offering constructive feedback.
2. In the online forum, the deprecator's comments discouraged many new contributors from sharing their work.
3. Despite being a talented artist, she often acted as her own deprecator, underestimating her abilities.
4. The deprecator's harsh criticisms stifled creativity and created a hostile environment for collaboration.
5. He played the role of a deprecator in their discussions, but deep down, he admired their efforts.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deprecator>