

DEPRECIATORY

Meaning: Depreciatory refers to expressing disapproval or belittling someone or something, often diminishing their value or worth.

1. Her depreciatory remarks about his work left him feeling undervalued.
2. The critic's depreciatory tone in the review overshadowed any positive feedback.
3. In meetings, her depreciatory comments often stifled creative ideas from the team.
4. He found her depreciatory laughter unsettling, as if she was mocking his ambitions.
5. Despite the depreciatory comments from others, she remained confident in her choices.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/depreciatory>