

DEPULSION

Meaning: Depulsion refers to the act or process of driving away or pushing back, often resulting in separation or exclusion.

1. The depulsion of the spacecraft from the launch pad marked the beginning of its journey into orbit.
2. She felt a strong depulsion from the group after her controversial remarks during the meeting.
3. The scientist studied the forces of depulsion in order to better understand particle behavior.
4. His sudden depulsion from the team left everyone shocked and questioning the reasons behind it.
5. The magnetic depulsion between the two like poles created a fascinating display of energy.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/depulsion>