

DEPUTATION

Meaning: Deputation: a group of individuals appointed to represent others, typically in a formal meeting or negotiation.

1. The mayor welcomed the deputation of local business leaders to discuss community development.
2. A formal deputation was sent to the government to advocate for better healthcare services.
3. During the meeting, the deputation presented a compelling case for environmental reform.
4. The school board received a deputation of parents seeking changes to the curriculum.
5. After much deliberation, the council agreed to meet with the deputation to address their concerns.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deputation>