

DERAILMENT

Meaning: Derailment refers to the event in which a train goes off its tracks, often resulting in accidents or disruptions.

1. The sudden derailment of the train caused significant delays for the morning commuters.
2. Experts are investigating the cause of the derailment that occurred late last night.
3. Safety protocols were updated after a series of derailments raised concerns among officials.
4. The derailment of the freight train resulted in a massive cleanup operation along the tracks.
5. Witnesses reported feeling the ground shake as the derailment unfolded before their eyes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/derailment>