

DERANGER

Meaning: DERANGER (noun): Something or someone that disrupts, disturbs, or interferes with focus or the intended course of an activity or conversation.

1. The loud construction noise was a deranger of her concentration while she tried to study.
2. His sarcastic remarks served as a deranger, causing the conversation to veer off course.
3. Unexpected interruptions are often a deranger to a well-planned meeting agenda.
4. The bright lights and loud music acted as a deranger, making it difficult for her to focus on her thoughts.
5. In a world full of distractions, finding silence can be a deranger of everyday chaos.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deranger>