

DERELICTION

Meaning: Dereliction refers to the state of being abandoned or neglected, particularly in relation to responsibilities or duties.

1. The abandoned building stood as a stark reminder of the city's dereliction.
2. Her dereliction of duty during the crisis severely impacted the team's morale.
3. The community rallied together to address the dereliction of their local parks.
4. He faced serious consequences due to his dereliction in maintaining safety standards.
5. The novel explores themes of dereliction and redemption in post-war society.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dereliction>