

DERISION

Meaning: Derision is the expression of contempt or ridicule towards someone or something.

1. His comments were met with derision from the audience, who found them utterly ridiculous.
2. The comedian's jokes were laced with derision, poking fun at common social norms.
3. In a moment of derision, she dismissed his concerns as mere paranoia.
4. The critics expressed their derision towards the film, calling it a waste of time and resources.
5. She felt a pang of derision towards her own mistakes, realizing how foolish she had been.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/derision>