

DERISIVE

Meaning: Derisive means expressing contempt or ridicule, often in a mocking or scornful manner.

1. His derisive laughter echoed through the empty hall, making everyone feel uncomfortable.
2. She shot him a derisive glance when he suggested they take the easy way out.
3. The critic's derisive review of the film left the director feeling disheartened.
4. Despite his derisive comments about her work, she remained confident in her abilities.
5. In a derisive tone, he dismissed her concerns as overly dramatic and unfounded.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/derisive>