

DESCRIBABLE

Meaning: Describable: capable of being expressed or represented in words.

1. The beauty of the sunset was indescribable, transcending any words I could find.
2. Her emotions during the moment were so intense that they felt almost indescribable.
3. The complexity of the universe often leaves us with feelings that are beyond describable limits.
4. In his novel, the author created a world that was both rich and describable in vivid detail.
5. Certain experiences in life are so profound that they seem almost describable only through art.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/describable>