

DESERTER

Meaning: A deserter is a person, especially a member of the military, who abandons their duty or post without permission, particularly during a time of conflict.

1. The soldier was branded a deserter after he abandoned his post during the battle.
2. In times of war, a deserter faces not only shame but severe punishment from their peers.
3. Many consider him a traitor, but he insists that he was a deserter for a just cause.
4. The army launched a manhunt to capture the deserter who fled into the nearby mountains.
5. Her former friend became a deserter, leaving behind a life of security for uncertainty.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deserter>