

DESERVEDNESS

Meaning: Deservedness refers to the quality of being worthy of something, often in relation to fairness and equity in social contexts.

1. The concept of deservedness often influences people's perceptions of fairness in social situations.
2. In her speech, she argued that true deservedness is not merely based on hard work, but also on opportunity.
3. He questioned the deservedness of the award, believing others had contributed more significantly.
4. Deservedness plays a crucial role in how we allocate resources within our communities.
5. The debate on deservedness can become heated, as it touches on issues of equity and justice.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deservedness>