

DESICCATIVE

Meaning: Desiccative refers to a substance or agent that has the ability to remove moisture or dry out materials.

1. The desiccative properties of the chemical make it ideal for preserving delicate specimens.
2. After applying a desiccative agent, the surface of the fruit became dry and shriveled.
3. In the laboratory, we used a desiccative to remove moisture from the air before conducting the experiment.
4. A desiccative environment is essential for certain types of fungi to grow and flourish.
5. The ancient Egyptians employed desiccative techniques to mummify their dead, preserving them for centuries.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/desiccative>