

DESIGNATION

Meaning: Designation refers to an official title or role assigned to a person within an organization.

1. The job title on her business card reflects her official designation within the company.
2. His designation as the team leader came with additional responsibilities and expectations.
3. After the meeting, he received a formal letter confirming his designation as the new project manager.
4. The designation of the award is intended to honor those who have made significant contributions to the field.
5. In many organizations, the designation of employees can affect their salary and career advancement opportunities.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/designation>