

DESIGNATIVE

Meaning: Designative (adj.): relating to a word or phrase that denotes a specific object or concept.

1. The term 'designative' refers to a word or phrase that serves to denote a particular object or concept.
2. In linguistics, a designative noun points specifically to the item it represents, distinguishing it from more abstract terms.
3. The artist's designative approach ensured that each element in the painting directly conveyed its intended meaning.
4. In philosophy, the designative function of language is crucial for discussing concepts and their referents.
5. Understanding the designative role of symbols can enhance our interpretation of complex texts and artworks.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/designative>