

DESISTIVE

Meaning: Desistive (adjective): serving to compel or encourage someone to cease an action or behavior.

1. The judge issued a desistive order, compelling the defendant to stop all unlawful activities.
2. Her desistive remarks during the meeting helped to diffuse the escalating tensions among the team members.
3. In response to the complaints, the company released a desistive statement addressing the customers' concerns.
4. The activist's speech was meant to be desistive, urging the public to refrain from harmful behaviors towards the environment.
5. Despite the desistive tone of the letter, many recipients continued with their previous actions, ignoring the warning.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/desistive>