

DESK

Meaning: Desk: a piece of furniture with a flat surface used for working, studying, or writing, often equipped with drawers for storage.

1. The teacher organized the classroom by arranging each desk in neat rows.
2. She placed her coffee mug on the corner of her desk while she worked on the report.
3. He cleared the clutter from his desk to make space for the new computer.
4. The ornate desk in the study belonged to her grandfather and held many memories.
5. After hours of studying, she finally felt ready to tackle the exam from her desk.
6. She organized all her papers neatly on the desk before the meeting.
7. The antique desk in the corner of the room added a touch of elegance to the space.
8. He found it difficult to concentrate with so many distractions around his desk.
9. After a long day, she loved to unwind at her desk with a good book.
10. The desk lamp flickered softly as the sun began to set outside the window.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/desk>