

DESPEND

Meaning: Despend (verb): To spend or allocate resources, such as money or time, typically in a deliberate or planned manner.

1. They decided to despend their savings on a dream vacation to Europe.
2. In an effort to despend their resources wisely, the team held a budget planning meeting.
3. The organization aims to despend its funds in a way that maximizes community impact.
4. Rather than let the opportunity slip away, she chose to despend her time volunteering for the cause.
5. It's important to despend energy on projects that align with your long-term goals.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/despend>