DESPONDENCE

Meaning: Despondence is a state of deep sadness or hopelessness, often characterized by a lack of motivation or optimism.

1. The sudden loss of her job plunged him into a deep state of despondence.

2. Despite the support of her friends, she couldn't shake off the despondence that clouded her mind.

3. The despondence in the air was palpable as the community mourned the tragic events of the past week.

4. In moments of despondence, it's essential to seek help and remember that brighter days lie ahead.

5. His despondence was evident in his lack of motivation and the dark circles under his eyes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/despondence