

DESSPORT

Meaning: Desport (verb): to engage in recreational activities or amuse oneself through play or sports.

1. He decided to desport himself by joining the local football team.
2. The children were eager to desport in the park after finishing their homework.
3. During the summer, many people desport by taking part in water sports along the coast.
4. She always found time to desport on weekends, whether hiking or cycling.
5. The festival encouraged families to desport together with various outdoor activities.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/desport>