

DESPUMATING

Meaning: Despumating refers to the process of removing foam or impurities from a liquid, particularly in cooking or winemaking, to achieve clarity and improve quality.

1. The chef spent the afternoon despumating the simmering broth to ensure a clear final product.
2. During the winemaking process, the grapes required despumating to achieve the desired clarity and flavor.
3. As the foam began to rise in the boiling pot, she quickly started despumating to prevent any overflow.
4. In the lab, the scientist focused on despumating the liquid to remove any impurities before analyzing the sample.
5. The artisanal soapmaker emphasized the importance of despumating the mixture to create a smooth, luxurious texture.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/despumating>