

DESULTORY

Meaning: Desultory: lacking a plan, purpose, or enthusiasm; marked by a lack of consistency or order.

1. His desultory approach to studying left him unprepared for the final exam.
2. She made a desultory attempt to engage in the conversation before drifting off.
3. The meeting was filled with desultory discussions that failed to address any key issues.
4. After a desultory afternoon of browsing, he finally decided to leave the bookstore empty-handed.
5. Their desultory travels took them to various cities, but none left a lasting impression.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/desultory>