

DETACH

Meaning: Detach: to separate or remove oneself or something from a connection or attachment.

1. She decided to detach herself from the negativity that surrounded her.
2. The mechanic had to detach the old battery before installing the new one.
3. It's important to detach your emotions from the situation in order to think clearly.
4. He struggled to detach the sticker from the surface without tearing it.
5. To make the repair easier, you should first detach the front panel of the device.
6. She tried to detach herself from the emotional turmoil of the situation.
7. After the accident, he had to detach the damaged part from the vehicle.
8. It's important to detach personal feelings when making a professional decision.
9. The artist decided to detach from traditional methods and explore new techniques.
10. To clean the printer, you need to carefully detach the ink cartridge first.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/detach>