

DETERGENCY

Meaning: Detergency refers to the effectiveness of policies or systems in preventing undesirable behaviors, particularly crime.

1. The concept of detergency is crucial in understanding how certain policies can prevent crime.
2. In her research, she explored the detergency of various legal systems across different cultures.
3. The detergency of strict penalties was evident in the significant decrease in violations.
4. Experts debated the effectiveness of detergency in reducing recidivism rates among offenders.
5. He argued that the perception of punishment's detergency varies greatly among individuals.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/detergency>