

DETERMENT

Meaning: Determent: a factor or condition that discourages or prevents certain actions or behaviors.

1. The harsh penalties acted as a significant determent to potential offenders.
2. Her warning served as a determent, keeping the children from venturing too close to the edge.
3. The company's strict policies were designed as a determent for employees considering theft.
4. Increased surveillance proved to be an effective determent against vandalism in the neighborhood.
5. The public awareness campaign aimed to create a determent to discourage reckless driving.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/determent>