

DETERRENCE

Meaning: Deterrence is the act or strategy of preventing an action, particularly through the threat of consequences or punishment.

1. The concept of nuclear deterrence has shaped global politics for decades.
2. Effective law enforcement can serve as a deterrence against crime in communities.
3. Many argue that economic sanctions can be an effective form of deterrence in international relations.
4. The presence of security cameras can provide a sense of deterrence for potential vandalism.
5. Psychologists study the role of deterrence in influencing human behavior and decision-making.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deterrence>