

DETERSIVENESS

Meaning: Detersiveness refers to the effectiveness of a measure or policy in preventing undesirable actions or behaviors.

1. The detersiveness of the new policy was evident as compliance rates increased significantly.
2. Experts argued that the detersiveness of strict penalties often outweighs their intended deterrent effect.
3. In his research, he explored the concept of detersiveness in relation to environmental regulations.
4. The detersiveness of their marketing strategy successfully discouraged competitors from entering the market.
5. She emphasized the importance of detersiveness in crime prevention initiatives within urban areas.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/detersiveness>