

DETESTABLENESS

Meaning: Detestableness refers to the quality of being deserving of intense dislike or hatred, often due to morally reprehensible actions or behaviors.

1. The detestableness of his actions left a lasting impression on everyone who witnessed them.
2. In her novel, the author explores the theme of detestableness through the character's morally reprehensible choices.
3. His detestableness was evident in the way he treated those who were less fortunate.
4. The community rallied together to condemn the detestableness that had seeped into their town's politics.
5. With each revelation, the detestableness of the scandal grew more apparent to the public.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/detestableness>