

DETHRONE

Meaning: DETHRONE: to remove someone from a position of power or authority, especially from a throne or leadership role.

1. The ambitious young prince plotted to dethrone his father and take the throne for himself.
2. In a surprising turn of events, the underdog team managed to dethrone the reigning champions.
3. The revolutionaries sought to dethrone the oppressive regime that had ruled for decades.
4. With a powerful speech, she inspired her followers to dethrone the corrupt politicians.
5. The election results were a clear message that the voters were ready to dethrone the incumbent.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dethrone>