

DETHRONER

Meaning: Dethroner: a person or entity that removes someone from a position of power or dominance, especially in a competitive context.

1. The champion was determined to prove that he was no mere dethroner but a deserving titleholder.
2. In a surprising twist, the underdog emerged as the dethroner, taking down the reigning favorite in the finals.
3. The dethroner's victory was celebrated not only for the win but also for the skill displayed throughout the match.
4. Many fans awaited the inevitable rematch, eager to see if the dethroner could defend their title against the former champion.
5. The dethroner quickly became a legend, inspiring countless aspiring athletes with their incredible rise to fame.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dethroner>