

DETHRONIZE

Meaning: To dethrone means to remove someone from a position of power or authority, especially a monarch or champion.

1. The king was dethroned after a long and tumultuous rebellion.
2. In a surprising turn of events, the champion was dethroned by an underdog fighter.
3. The scandal threatened to dethrone the popular politician from his position of power.
4. Many believed that the new policies would eventually dethrone the traditional leaders of the community.
5. Historians often debate the reasons behind the queen's rapid dethronization in the 18th century.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dethrone>