

DETONATING

Meaning: Detonating refers to the act of causing an explosive device or charge to explode or ignite with a sudden release of energy.

1. The engineers were carefully monitoring the conditions before detonating the explosive charges.
2. As the clock struck midnight, the fireworks began detonating in a spectacular display of colors.
3. The suspense grew as they prepared for the moment of detonating the old building for its demolition.
4. In a tense standoff, the villain threatened to start detonating the bombs if his demands were not met.
5. The sound of detonating shells echoed across the battlefield, signaling the start of the offensive.
6. The technicians were carefully inspecting the explosives before detonating them in the controlled environment.
7. A loud roar echoed through the valley, signaling that the team had successfully begun detonating the old munitions.
8. She watched in awe as the fireworks lit up the sky, each burst detonating in a dazzling display of color.
9. The soldiers were trained to remain calm and focused while detonating charges in high-pressure situations.
10. Safety protocols must be strictly followed when detonating any kind of explosive material to prevent accidents.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/detonating>